The Pharmacy Exam Review Course is designed to

1. Prepare U.S.-educated students to be successful on the NAPLEX[®] and MPJE[™] exams; and
2. Prepare foreign-educated pharmacists to successfully pass the Foreign Pharmacy Graduate Equivalency Exam[®] (FPGEE[®]), the NAPLEX[®] and the MPJE[™] exams.

Objectives

- Discuss the economic, social, and administrative influences on drug development and delivery of health care (FPGEE[®]).
- Review key concepts in the basic sciences, including concepts in biology, microbiology, general chemistry, organic chemistry, and biochemistry (FPGEE[®]).
- Discuss principles of pharmaceutical sciences, including drug absorption, distribution, metabolism and excretion, bioequivalence, and dosage formulation design (FPGEE[®]).
- Discuss the implications of federal law and the Illinois Pharmacy Practice Act and Rules for Administration of the Act on the practice of pharmacy (MPJE[™]).
- Demonstrate application of pharmaceutical calculations, pharmacokinetics, and basic statistics (FPGEE[®] and NAPLEX[®]).
- Understand the pathophysiology of and identify presenting signs and symptoms of common diseases, recommend appropriate drug therapy, identify goals of treatment and monitoring parameters, and summarize key patient counseling issues (FPGEE[®] and NAPLEX[®]).

Audience: The program is open to all individuals preparing to take the FPGEE[®], MPJE[™], and/or the NAPLEX[®] exams.

Location: Midwestern University
555 31st St.
Downers Grove, IL 60515

FPGEE[®] students attend the entire 6-day class.

NAPLEX[®]/MPJE[™] students attend the class only on Friday, and Monday to Wednesday.

MPJE[™] students attend only the law review session on Wednesday.

NAPLEX[®], FPGEE[®], and MPJE[™] are federally registered trademarks owned by the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy (NABP). This review course is in no way authorized or sponsored by the NABP.

Refund Policy: Refunds, less a $50.00 cancellation fee, will be issued for written requests on or before 1 week prior to the class. No refund will be issued after this date for non-attendance.
