The MWU Clinical Psychology Program is proud to highlight the culmination of student and faculty efforts in the 2018-2019 academic year, including scholarships, awards, activities, grants, and research presentations and publications.

Student Accomplishments

Scholarships/Awards

Kauionalani Fukuda was awarded a $5,000 Spirit of Service Scholarship (of 6 total awards granted across MWU).

Eltonnelle James was awarded a $2,500 Spirit of Service Scholarship (of 20 total awards granted across MWU).

Justin Gardener received the Kenneth A. Suarez Research Day Student Award ($250), recognizing his work on one of the best poster presentations this year.

Congratulations to Jourdin Navarro, who was commissioned as a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy on July 11th.

Program Updates & Activities

- All 23 students who entered the 2018-2019 internship match obtained placements at APA-accredited sites.
- The Clinical Psychology Program was an integral part of MWU’s Health Outreach through Medicine & Education Program (H.O.M.E), with 20 active members.
- The Active Minds Organization held a campus-wide Stress Less Day and a Suicide Awareness event, showed the film “Call Me Crazy,” and held a discussion on mental health stigma.
- Students in the Behavioral Health Consult Program have continued to offer consultative and follow-up therapy services to Family Medicine, Speech Language-Pathology, Optometry, and Veterinary patients.
- The Program offered four $5000 Admissions Scholarships to students in the incoming 2020 class.

Faculty Accomplishments

Dr. Breitmeyer has accepted an appointment as a national representative for The International Association of Cognitive-Behavioral Coaching (IACBC).

Dr. Butaney was elected President for Section IV of APA Division 39 and was also appointed as the Chair of the Division’s Committee on Education and Training.

Dr. Chamberlain served on the National Council of Schools of Professional Psychology Workgroup on APA Race and Ethnicity Guidelines in psychotherapy.

Dr. Flint received her Association for Death Education and Counseling certification in Thanatology.

Dr. Flint and Dr. Virden were guest speakers on the Successful Aging radio broadcast.

Dr. Fried has been quoted on issues related to stress, anxiety, and relationships in several national media publications this past year, including The New York Times, Prevention Magazine, Thrive Global Media and She Knows Media. He also served as an expert contributor on WKGO radio (San Francisco).

Dr. Jansen was appointed to the MWU Graduate Medical Education Committee, where she provides expert advice on resident wellness and mental health education.
Student and Faculty Presentations

Collectively, students and faculty have given over 20 presentations at conferences in the 2018-2019 academic year, including:

Faculty Publications
Collectively, faculty have published peer-reviewed articles, book chapters, and abstracts in the 2018-2019 academic year, including:

Second-year students Rebecca Bridges & Danielle Smedley (below) presenting their work on Limited Access to Pediatric Neuropsychological Evaluations for Non-English speakers in Arizona at the Kenneth A. Suarez Research Day in Glendale, AZ

Second-year student David Hayduke (below) presenting his work on A Neuropsychological Case Study of Wernicke-Korsakoff Encephalopathy at the Kenneth A. Suarez Research Day in Glendale, AZ

Third-year student Karlie A. Krause (below) presenting her work on Exploratory Findings on the Relationship Between Video Game Habits and Executive Functions at the Kenneth A. Suarez Research Day in Glendale, AZ

Third-year student Jessica M. Grossnicklaus (below) presenting her work on Preparing Collegiate Athletes for Success Beyond Sport at the Kenneth A. Suarez Research Day in Glendale, AZ

Third-year student Gabriella Rozio (below), presenting her work on Online Dating Behavior: Adults Over 40 Versus Adults Below 40 at the RMPA Annual Conference in Denver, CO

Third-year student Jourdin Navarro (below) presenting her work on Treatment of Stress in Combat-Deployed Service Members: Limitations and Future Directions at the SWPA Annual Conference in Albuquerque, NM

Third-year student Stephanie Salisbury (below) presenting her work on A Mixed Methods Approach to Analyzing Female Triathlete Motivation at the NASPSPA Annual Conference in Baltimore, MD

Second-year student Kendra A. Gort (below) presenting her work on Designing a Training Program for Healthcare Students to Reduce Biases Against Individuals with a Serious Mental Illness (SMI) Diagnosis at the Kenneth A. Suarez Research Day in Glendale, AZ