

Rights and Responsibilities of Students

Rights

- Equal access to courses, rotations, programs, services, jobs, activities, and facilities available through the University.
- Reasonable and appropriate accommodations, academic adjustments, and/or auxiliary aids determined on a case-by-case basis.
- Appropriate confidentiality of all information pertaining to his/her disability with the reasonable choice of whom to disclose their disability to except as required by law.
- Information reasonably available in accessible formats.

Responsibilities

- Meet the University's and individual program's qualifications and essential technical, academic, professional and institutional standards as any other student.
- Identify themselves in a timely manner as an individual with a disability when seeking an accommodation.
- Provide documentation from an appropriate professional source that verifies the nature of the disability, functional limitations, and the need for specific accommodations.
- Follow specific procedures for obtaining reasonable and appropriate accommodations, academic adjustments and/or auxiliary aids.
- Have the responsibility to advocate for their own individual needs and to seek information, counsel, and assistance as necessary, and within reason, to be effective self-advocates.