We Have a Wealth of Information!

<https://library.midwestern.edu>

Get Online Resources at Library Website

1. Start from library homepage

<https://library.midwestern.edu>

ON-Campus – Access to library resources automatically verified. You will remain logged in for the duration of your browser session

OFF-Campus – When accessing any MWU online resources you will be prompted to enter your MWU username and password

Using Electronic Books - eBooks

Information about the availability of an eBook for reading online or offline can be seen after you log into it.

- For reading Online, full-text is not downloadable or checked out
- For reading Offline, options allow for download or print

Publisher eBook licenses restrict the number of users who can view a book at one time.

- The number of simultaneous users range from 1 user to unlimited users and is noted in the library catalog.

Sign-up for Medical Mobile Apps

Download and register for apps from from ON-campus or OFF-campus

1. Start from library homepage

<https://library.midwestern.edu>

2. On the top menu bar,
Go to Find > Apps

3. Follow instructions for each app on either tab that opens

Renew Apps

- Renewal works from both ON-campus and OFF-campus
- ONLY use links provided on library homepage
- Follow instructions for each individual app

Note: Some apps require login from browser at least every 90 days for continued access

The screenshot shows the Midwestern University Library homepage. A red circle with the number '1' highlights the 'Find' button in the top navigation bar. A second red circle with the number '2' highlights the 'Find' dropdown menu, which is open and shows options like 'Find E-Journals', 'Find E-Books', 'Find Databases', and 'Library Catalog'. The page also features a search bar, a 'LIVE CHAT' button, and a list of 'Popular Resources' including UpToDate, PubMed, EBSCOhost Databases, Web of Science, Google Scholar, EndNote Online, DynaMed Plus with Isabel, and ILLiad - Order Articles/Books. There is also a section for 'Find Full-Text Articles' with links to PubMed Full-Text Article Look-Up and Full-Text Article Look-Up. The page is titled 'MIDWESTERN UNIVERSITY Tomorrow's Healthcare Team'.
