This FREE continuing education program for optometrists will feature eight optometric residents giving Grand Rounds presentations on some of the most challenging cases they have encountered.

Please pre-register online at: midwestern.edu/azcplotresidentsday2014

For more information, contact Kevin Helmuth, O.D.
623.806.7227 | khelmuth@midwestern.edu

Optional Eye Institute Tour | 3:45 to 5:00 PM

Presented by the Arizona College of Optometry

An Optometry Continuing Education Program

Friday, April 25, 2014 | 1:00 to 3:30 PM

Midwestern University Auditorium | Glendale, Arizona

2.5 Hours
SCHEDULE:

SESSION ONE – 1:00 to 1:50 PM

Ocular Trauma
The essentials of an exam involving trauma to the eye
Erika Anderson, O.D. | Navajo Area Arizona Indian Health Services – Chinle, Arizona

Retinal Vaso-Occlusive Disorders
The etiologic differences between retinal artery and vein occlusions and management recommendations
Joel Causey, O.D. | Navajo Area Indian Health Services – Chinle, Arizona

Multiple Cranial Nerve Palsies Caused by a Petrous Chondrosarcoma
Diplopia and facial pain are found to have an unusual cause
Breanne Flores, O.D. | Tuba City Regional Healthcare Corporation – Tuba City, Arizona

SESSION TWO – 2:00 to 2:50 PM

Normal Tension Glaucoma/Pituitary Adenoma
Understanding the complexities of low tension glaucoma and links to intracranial tumors
Jason Klepfisz, O.D. | Indian Health Services Hospital – Zuni, New Mexico

“It’s the PITS...again” Recurrent Pituitary Adenoma
A blurred vision complaint is more than meets the eye
Anna L.O. Moore, O.D. | Southern Arizona VA Healthcare System, Sierra Vista Community Based Outpatient Clinic – Sierra Vista, Arizona

Likely Cogan’s Syndrome in a Patient with Interstitial Keratitis
A painful red eye leads to an atypical diagnosis
Melissa Lester, O.D. | Northern Navajo New Mexico Medical Center – Shiprock, New Mexico

SESSION THREE – 3:00 to 3:30 PM

“Lost in the Desert: Resident Journeys to Enlightenment”
Six confounding cases present a challenge to this resident team
Derek P. Jacobsen, O.D. and Robert J. Simons, O.D. | Hu Hu Kam Memorial Hospital – Sacaton, Arizona

OPTIONAL – 3:45 to 5:00 PM

Tour Midwestern University’s state-of-the-art Eye Institute encompassing:

- Specialty Testing: Confocal Microscopy/Tear Lab/OCT
- Low Vision/Visual Rehabilitation
- Vision Therapy and Pediatric Services
- Ocular Prosthetics
- Electrodiagnostics (EOG/ERG/VEP)
- Specialty Contact Lenses