INTERNATIONAL STUDENT INFORMATION

Instructions for Affidavits of Support and Financial Proof

International students seeking to go through the Appeals process must provide financial documentation to prove that they have funds to cover the cost of tuition and other mandatory fees. The amount of funding needs to be in U.S. dollars, and must include tuition and mandatory fees, room and board, books and supplies, medical insurance, and other living expenses. Please refer to the back of this handout to view the tuition cost estimates, fees and living expenses (based on 2015-2016 academic year), as well as list of acceptable Canadian banks.

The Affidavit(s) of Support and Financial Proof must clearly indicate source of support. Please note a Certificate of Eligibility I-20 Document will not be issued until adequate financial support is verified by Midwestern University.

SECTION I: AFFIDAVIT OF PERSONAL FUNDS

If you will need an F-1 visa, Midwestern University is required by the U.S. government regulations to check the availability of adequate funding for your tuition, fees and living expenses for the duration of your studies. We will not be able to provide you with an I-20 document until all funding documentation has been completed and submitted to the Student Financial Services department. Please note all funds should be liquid.

STUDENT INFORMATION:

Estimated Savings Chart

By prepaying for the total tuition cost of the program, you can lock yourself into the current tuition rate for the entire length of your program, and you will not be impacted by the yearly 5% to 7% (approximately) tuition increases. Also, in the long run you can save yourself a lot of money!

For your convenience, we have put together an estimated savings chart for our two campuses – Downers Grove, IL and Glendale, AZ
