Midwestern University’s
ADVANCING HEALTH EQUITY
WEBINAR SERIES
An Interdisciplinary CME/CE Program*

Join our experts for timely discussions featuring real-world situations, best practices, and steps healthcare providers can use to recognize and address bias and healthcare disparities to provide equitable, compassionate care that considers the unique backgrounds and lived experiences of each patient.

These one-hour webinars are constructed to assess and discuss an advanced approach to understanding social determinants of health, and how to promote diversity, equity, and inclusion in the healthcare setting.

Webinars will be hosted monthly from September 2022 to February 2023
Date/times to be determined.
